

ME CONNECT

Would you like to work with our telephone helpline ME CONNECT?

ME Connect is the telephone helpline service of the ME Association. It provides information and support for people with ME and those who live with or care for them.

We are now looking for volunteers to join our team

Stay at home: Calls are taken from the volunteers' own homes

What you'll need: A landline is required

Full training given: 25 hours training provided

If you are interested, please email:

admin@meassociation.org.uk for more information

